DAILY PRAYER INTENTIONS

DEISYFIADAU

GWEDDI DDYDDIOL

Jesus treated us much better than we deserve.

He made us acceptable to God and gave us the hope of eternal life.

(Titus 3 v 7 (CEV))

JANUARY TO MARCH/ IONAWR I MAWRTH
2024

Loving Heavenly Father,
you call us to grow your Kingdom.
Help us to tell a joyful story and to build your goodness in our world, through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Nefol Dad Cariadus,
gelwaist ni i dyfu dy Deyrnas.
Cynorthwya ni i adrodd stori lawen ac i adeiladu dy ddaioni yn ein byd, trwy Iesu Grist ein Harglwydd.
Amen.

Lord Jesus,
you embrace us just as we are and yet seek to take us deeper into the wonder of your Kingdom.
You constantly forgive us when we fail and help us to have the courage to start again.
You show us how to offload the guilt that would weigh us down.
Show us how we can follow your example to always reach out in compassion, to be open and welcoming rather than judging from on high.
Give us the grace to do more than long for reconciliation but to roll up our sleeves and work for it.
May we indeed sow the seeds of life that you so freely place in our hands so that all may bear the fruits of joy and peace and be united with the saints that have made our journey of faith and indeed the offering of this prayer possible.

Jesus Light of the World
we praise you for Mary the first bearer of light in her welcoming womb.

Jesus, healer of the despised and broken we praise you for all that Mary reveals within the joy and sorrow of her responsive life.

Jesus our constant teacher
we give thanks for Mary's timeless words
'do whatever he tells you'

Jesus the Bread of Life we rejoice in Mary's response in Bethlehem: The House of Bread

Jesus our crucified Saviour

we sign ourselves with the cross as we remember Mary's vigil at the foot of the cross and cherish your words to John and so us:
'Behold your Mother'

Risen Lord, we praise you for breathing the Spirit upon your followers in every age, and for Mary's openness to the same Spirit as she kept vigil with the Apostles.

Lord Jesus reigning in glory we give thanks for the completion of Mary's work on earth and for her endless hymn of praise that daily inspires us to give you the glory and to serve you in all that we are called to do according to your will. (CPS)

	The anointing of the head was a ritual for kings and performed by prophets or priests. The woman who anointed Jesus unknowingly acts as priest and prophet in a world where women waited on table and did not draw attention to their actions. We may not always understand the significance of our actions to God. Our sacrifices can seem irrelevant but bring joy to Jesus. The woman did not care what other people thought; indeed there was severe criticism. The oil flowed from her heart of love and Jesus praised her and prophesied that she would be forever remembered for her loving act. Our acts of compassion should not be done for other people's praise, God's joyous welcome should be enough. 'Whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.' (CPS)

Yr Ystwyll

Arglwydd Dduw,
arweiniwyd doethion at Iesu gan seren:
caniatâ i' th gariad fod yn dywysydd i ni, yn ein harwain yn barhaus yn ein bywyd dyddiol.

Fel y rhoddodd y doethion aur, thus a myrr, cymorth ni i offrymu'n gweddïau a'n haddoliad, ein cariad, ein doniau a'n talentau, er dy glod.

Fel y darganfu'r doethion y Crist yn blentyn, wedi ei eni fel un ohonom ni, boed i ninnau ddod o hyd iddo yn ein gwaith, yn ein hamdden, yn ein cartrefi ac ym mhob rhan o fywyd, fel, yn dy ddyfodiad, y gwneir pob rhan o fywyd yn sanctaidd,
trwy'r un Iesu Grist ein Harglwydd. Amen.

Gweddi gan Robin Samuel

A prayer for the start of Lent.

Lord Jesus,
you were in the wilderness battling against temptation:
we pray for your presence in our battles against temptation in the wilderness of the world.

We seek your help to withstand the temptation
of doing as we please.

We seek your help to withstand the temptation
of trying to constantly prove ourselves, the desire to show that we are better than others.

	We seek your help to withstand the temptation of chasing after the pleasures of the world. Lead us to seek instead your strength and your way, because you understand our weaknesses, know our failings, and share with us your grace according to our need. Amen. Canon Dyfrig Lloyd

	Lord Jesus, you embrace us just as we are and yet seek to take us deeper into the wonder of your Kingdom. You constantly forgive us when we fail and help us to have the courage to start again. You show us how to offload the guilt that would weigh us down. Show us how we can follow your example to always reach out in compassion, to be open and welcoming rather than judging from on high. Give us the grace to do more than long for reconciliation but to roll up our sleeves and work for it. May we indeed sow the seeds of life that you so freely place in our hands so that all may bear the fruits of joy and peace and be united with the saints that have made our journey of faith and indeed the offering of this prayer possible. (CPS)

Gweddi Ddyddiol 2009

A Prayer for Holy Week

Lord God, our heavenly Father, look, we pray, with your divine pity on the pains of all your children; and grant that the passion of our Lord and his infinite love
may make fruitful for good the tribulations of the innocent, the sufferings of the sick,
and the sorrows for the bereaved;
through him who suffered in our flesh
and died for our sake,
your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Jesus, healer of the despised and broken we praise you for all that Mary reveals within the joy and sorrow of her responsive life. 	we sign ourselves with the cross as we remember Mary's vigil at the foot of the cross and cherish your words to John and so us: 'Behold your Mother' Risen Lord we praise you for breathing the Spirit upon your followers in every age, and for Mary's openness to the same Spirit as she kept vigil with the Apostles. Lord Jesus reigning in glory we give thanks for the completion of Mary's work on earth and for her endless hymn of praise that daily inspires us to give you the glory and to serve you in all that we are called to do according to your will. CPS 2024

	THIS IS HOW TO CELEBRATE ALLELUIA The Lord has Risen He has risen indeed. Ring the bells clash then in uncontrolled bursts of dignified joy Light the great candle Pull out the stops stoke the incense -use only the best.

Perfume the altar
with sweet smelling Madonna lillies trumpeting the resurrection
Don the gold vestments.
Let choir and people unite their tuned voices in a Hymn of pure joy-filled praise.
Lift high the Gospel book reverence the altar and cense away, every move a liturgical dance of blessing.
Everyone welcomed for the tomb is empty for the Lord is here and his Spirit is with us.
Listen intently receptively to the Good News as if you have never heard it before.
Then in prayer lift up the whole world and offer it back to God
as the new creation it is meant to be.
Bring up the gifts- the pure unleavened bread the best wine,
Listen to the very words of the Lord repeated faithfully and each time a sacred event.
Don't look down at your leaflet look up and see the Host of Christ's body lifted high and the cup od Salvation held aloft and say with every fibre of your body
My Lord and My God.
And be silent in adoration Christ has come in glory to be placed in your hands and say with conviction not a polite mumble AMEN!
And pray quietly that your life may reflect the great power of the risen Christ to change lives.
And then double your ALLELUIAS

	Am gyflawni dy addewidion; Trwy Iesu Grist ein Harglwydd. Amen. A Prayer for Easter Lord our God, in the resurrection of Christ you create us anew for eternal life.
