DAILY PRAYER INTENTIONS

DEISYFIADAU GWEDDI DDYDDIOL

JANUARY TO MARCH/
IONAWR I MAWRTH
2022

He found Raphael that was an angel, and he said to him:

“Canst thou go with me?”

To whom the angel said: “I will go with thee, and I know the way well.”

(Tobit 5 vss 4-6)

Loving Heavenly Father,
you call us to grow your Kingdom.
Help us to tell a joyful story
and to build your goodness in our world,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Nefol Dad Cariadus,
gelwaist ni i dyfu dy Deyrnas.
Cynorthwya ni i adrodd stori lawen
ac i adeiladu dy ddaioni yn ein byd, trwy Iesu Grist ein Harglwydd.
Amen.

Lord, save us
from hiding behind lingering guilt
or from nursing resentments.
Open our eyes to the healing forgiveness
for ever flowing from your cross.
When we doubt the power of your forgiving love,
when we allow our wounded hearts to rule and ruin our lives,
may we hear afresh your timeless words:
Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.

May your forgiving spirit live once more in us and bring us to that joy that resounds in your presence over each sinner who repents
and over each hand reaching out in forgiveness.
We ask this in the strength of your amazing saving grace.

The story of Salvation

is the story of the God who came to us:
the Word was made flesh.

But also, the ongoing story of the God
who still comes to dwell with us:
God Emmanuel.

For the immortal invisible God
has totally revealed himself in Christ.

God was made man and shared indeed gave his life for us and we have seen his glory.

And he continues to address us and be known to us
in his Living Word:

These are recorded so that you may believe;

and in the Sacraments- the sacred meetings
as the waters of life are poured over us and as the Spirit descends to give us the Bread of life
and the cup of Salvation,
so that we will do more than remember him
but daily abide in him and he in us.

We are empowered not just to observe and rejoice
but to become part of the story,
to take our place in sharing the Gospel through our daily lives,
and celebrating the sacraments in such a way
that others can discern the sacred presence, and all the time be united in the great communion of the saints whose lives help light up the way,

always pointing us back to the source of all life
whose glorious presence for ever radiates pure love
full of grace and truth.

Do not be afraid enter the Wilderness
for Christ is with you.

We do not enter the wilderness
to put ourselves into the way of temptation
or hide away from the world's evil ways,
but to face the truth about ourselves
in relation to God and to those who journey with us.
We do not enter the wilderness for spiritual improvement,
to enjoy a better prayer diet,
or seek some miracle some stones that can become bread
that will deepen our faith.
We go to seek healing not only for ourselves
but for our church and the world.
The wilderness is the place where God can strip away
the endless distractions,
the busyness that we can hide behind
to prevent any unwanted change in our lives.
And we don't need to travel to a desert to find our wilderness.
but we need the space and the resolve to clear away a path,
to quieten our mind and body enough
to hear the silent voice of God.
We may become aware of the prowling lion
seeking whom he may devour,
but there are also the ministering angels-
our brothers and sisters in Christ,

who will help us to see the wilderness experience
as an opportunity for growth, for renewal
for a grace filled fresh start.

For if it is Christ himself invites us
to break bread with him in our upper room,
to keep vigil with him in his hour of agony,
and to stand at the foot of the cross
and not just admire the two figures
who are there when he needed them;
then He is also with us in our wilderness.
For through the dry dust of ash
when it is crossed shaped on our bodies
comes the water of life
like an unstoppable fountain
and Christ himself invites us to drink
from the well that will never run dry,
that will turn our wilderness
into a fruitful orchard of the Spirit.
And he will be there to welcome us
to show us his hands and sides now made glorious.

Litany of life in the Kingdom

In my anxious and restricted times
and in my sense of joyous freedom:
Your Kingdom come; your will be done.

In my sense of progress,
and in all my dead ends:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

Within the emerging words of my prayers,
and in the silence of my surrendered heart:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

When feeling wronged and wounded,
and through my costly giving and receiving forgiveness:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

In all that energises my daily life,
and in all that numbs and dulls my resolve:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

Through life-affirming relationships,
and in all the difficult and challenging ones:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

In times of deep despair when sorely tempted to give up,
but also when hope can be fruitfully nurtured:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

In all my questioning and confusion,
and when life makes perfect sense:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

When all too aware of my failings,
but also when I can rejoice in your transforming grace:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

In times of serious doubt,
and when faith can be affirmed and lived:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done

In times of physical weakness,

and in times of bodily strength:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

When I think I have all the answers, remind me of my constant need of your guiding hand -so that Your Kingdom may come your will be done.

Both when acts of compassion bear fruit,
and when loving acts are ignored or rejected:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done.

In all the rich blessings of life,
and in all the ways I encounter your sacred presence:
Your Kingdom come, your will be done,
in my life and in the life of all the world,
now in this very moment and for evermore.
(why not add some of your own.....)

MARKING TIME:

Our Offering to let God sanctify the whole day and night

Evening Prayer: Vespers

Liturgical time starts in the evening.

As the sun descends our prayer
rises like incense: our sacrifice of praise
and thanksgiving.

We join Mary the mother of the Lord

in her Magnificat – her Song of Salvation.
We give thanks for the blessings of the past day,
for all that has gone well
and for God's help and guidance in any difficulties.
The Song of Mary reminds us
that all things are possible with God.
We affirm that we are in his hands.
We are called to be part of his Kingdom,
to say our line: "be it unto me according to thy word".

Compline: Night Prayer

We both let go of all the day has brought and hand it over to God :
Into your hands, O Lord, we commend ourselves,
our church, our world.
For indeed you have redeemed us, Lord God of truth.
Before we lie down in sleep,
we keep vigil with all for whom
the night is long and difficult,
for those who work through the night
and watch during the dark hours.
Save us Lord whilst waking,
and guard us all whilst sleeping,
that awake we may watch with Christ
and asleep we may rest in his peace.

Morning Prayer : Lauds

We turn to look at the rising sun.
We look to the new day and to the future.

All the possibilities are set before us and we are all invited to choose life in all its newness.
We listen to God's words – given a fresh focus this new day and pray that it may speak to us.
So whether it's a joyous or difficult day,
the Lord is with us – he makes his home with us.

Midday Prayer

We neither look back or forward –
this is the prayer of the present moment.
We offer God our world in all its reality
and ask his blessing and purifying grace.
Now is the acceptable time.
Now is the Day of Salvation.
