Type of Youth Ministry

The priorities for most are developing links with schools and forming youth groups.

Other suggestions included:

- youth choir
- music groups
- links with higher education.

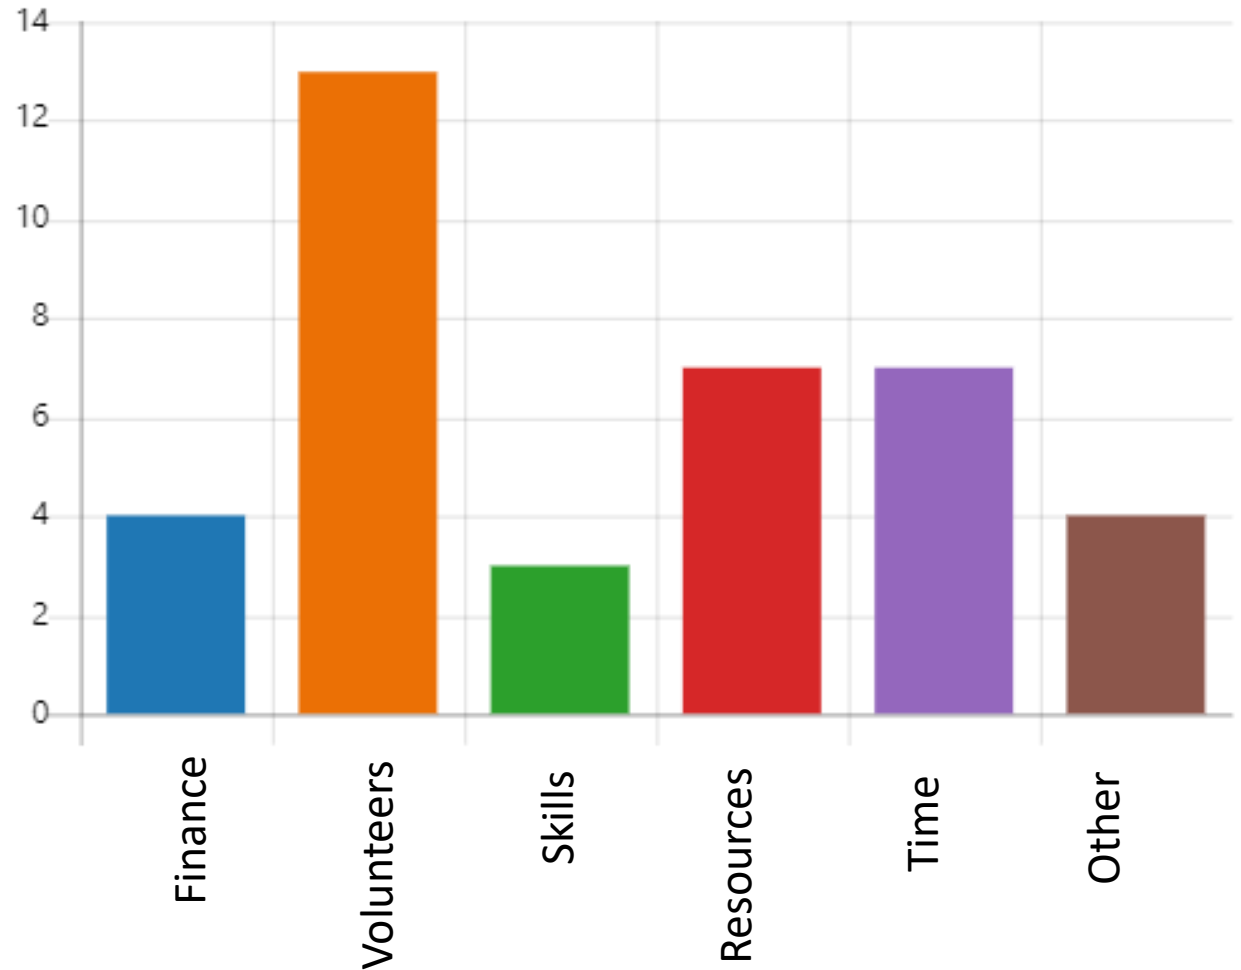

What are the barriers?

The barriers for most are finding volunteers.

Other suggestions included:

- all of the above
- timing
- lack of facilities.

What have you seen done well?

Count on Us Churchyard Project

Who: St Matthews Church, Neath and Bryncoch Church in Wales Primary School.

What: A God's Acre project, encouraging children to get to know their churchyard, recording nature, team games.

Support: Liaison between school and church, risk assessments, activity pack, support to lead activities.

Possible ways forward: Forest church or after school club.

Refugee Week 2021

Who: Fitzalan cluster schools

What: Engaging with community schools, celebrating refugee week and thinking about dreams for the future.

Support: contact with schools, resources, support to deliver.

Possible ways forward: Schools of Sanctuary and Welcome churches project

Message Bus

Who: Multiple venues across the diocese.

What: Engaging with young people through technology and gaming.

Support: Facilities, staffing on bus, planning ways forward.

Possible ways forward: growing relationships with the young people that attended events.

Beach BBQ

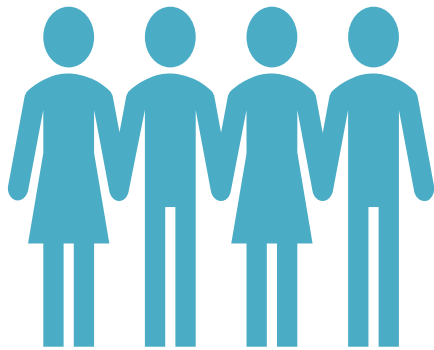

Who: Open invitation

What: Fun events, team games, worship opportunities.

Support: Planning and support at event.

Possible ways forward: Develop links across the diocese between youth groups and youth leaders.
